

J. Frank Duryea, who was born on this day in 1869, with his brother Charles, built and operated the first automobile in the US. He also won America's first automobile race. If you could participate in any type of race what would it be and why? Would it be on land, in the water, in the air?